MRS. CARNS ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. D. H. Carns was a charming hostess on Wednesday afternoon, when she entertained with three tables of auction.

The decorations, favors, etc., were typical Hallowe'en, and caused much merriment among the guests.

AUCTION BRIDGE.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ackerman entertained a number of friends with auction bridge.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

At the meeting of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon the members had the pleasure of hearing Miss Gordon, president of the state W. C. T. U. An invitation was extended to the Woman's club to meet Miss Anna Gordon, national president of the W. C. T. U. and world's vice-president at a reception at the Alvarado this afternoon.

Miss Frances Beatty gave some piano selections while Gladys and Mary Harris gave a piano and violin duet.

Those present also enjoyed a treat in Miss Hickey's paper on the Life and Works of Michael Angelo.

The club's open evening has been changed from the first Friday in the month to the first Monday.

NOTIGHTNLY MUSIC CLUB.

Mrs. Mabel Stevens Himes was hostess Tuesday evening to the Farnsworth Music Club at her home on West Coe Avenue. The program was decidedly interesting and instructive, consisting of a lecture by Mr. Stanley Soder on the development of sonata form; a piano number, Beethoven's Sonata in A flat major, by Mrs. Himes; and a violin number, Handel's Sonata F major, by Mr. Bruno Dieckmann. Besides these two big numbers, which were splendidly given, there were illustrations played by both Mrs. Himes and Mr. Soder, of the distinctive points of the sonata form. With this program as a fair example, it cannot be denied that the Notightly has opened its season with a seriousness and enthusiasm that promises well for the development of music in Albuquerque.

HIGHLAND BRIDGE CLUB.

The Highland Bridge club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Tull.

LUNCHEON BRIDGE CLUB.

The Luncheon Bridge club met Wednesday with Mrs. L. M. Raynolds in her home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Long, 510 South Broadway where they certified themselves for the evening with a hearty repeat. Later they woke up the sleeping populous all along the line from South Broadway to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Carnaby, 801 North Third street, where appropriate games were played until midnight when a second substantial repeat enabled the young people to wend their way home ward.

HALLOWEEN DANCE.

Miss Bob Conner is giving a Hallowe'en dance at her home this evening. The house decorations are typical of Hallowe'en. This invited are: Misses Katherine McMillen, Alberta Hawke, Lorna Lester, Belinda Horner, Jessie Strong, Agnes Myers, Caroline Michaels, Louise Bell, Margaret Floryou; Misses Lyman Putney, Anna Chaves, Harold Perry, Lyman Thackeray, Earl Portorfield, Carson Blackendarf, Harold Miller, Van Olson, George White, Brooks Bradley, Donald Wilson, Mrs. Ackerman.

YOUNGER SET AFFAIR.

The younger set will hold a Hallowe'en party at the Woman's club tonight. Pretty much all the boys are engaged in preparing for it, with the side assistance of the girls, but Greaves, Davis, Bob Clegg and Tom Egan are the generally recognized heads of the committee on arrangements.

The club will be gay with the usual Hallowe'en decorations and the usual and accepted games and frolics will be on the program, with, perhaps, one or two new and original sparks. Anyway, it may be said in advance that it will be some party, than which none is likely to be than another.

TO BEAUTIFY CEMETERY.

All owners of lots in Fairview cemetery have been asked to meet at the Woman's club Tuesday evening of next week at 7:30 to consider organized action looking to the beautifying of the cemetery. The cemetery is now piled too water over all sections of the ground and a number of those interested have taken the initiative in a campaign to relieve the burial ground of its present harnesses.

BRIDGE SCORES.

Two of the bridge clubs paid off scores Thursday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon the losers in the Highland club entertained the winners at a movie party followed by a luncheon at Grindam's. The winners were Mrs. H. G. Coors, Mrs. T. N. Wilkinson, Mrs. W. W. Strong and Mrs. D. H. Carns. The losers were Mrs. Mrs. E. Lowe, Mrs. Buttner, Mrs. F. E. Tall and Mrs. J. A. Reidy.

In the evening the Highland club entertained at the home of Mrs. W. W. Strong, the hostesses being Mrs. Ressel den, Mrs. W. W. Strong, Mrs. Frank Sturtz and Mrs. Wylder. The winners in this club were Mrs. Fred Conard, Mrs. Jim Barnes, Mrs. B. H. Dow and Mrs. Ackerman.

DANCE AT THE ARMY.

The first of a series of dances to be given under the auspices of Company G. N. M. N. G. and which are to be staged managed by Capt. J. H. Townsend will take place in the army Tuesday night of next week. These dances merit the attention and patronage of Albuquerque ladies of the fox trot and who like good music and a good time, for the admission charge is to be applied on completing the equipment of the national guard army and placing it in shape for use for the general session of the coming teachers' convention. The educators' association grows so rapidly that the high school auditorium is no longer large enough to accommodate the delegates and guests who flock to the general meetings of the convention. It will be necessary to use the army this year and Captain Townsend hopes that it may be possible to make the repairs to the army and add the equipment required for the general session of the coming teachers' convention. The tenth is the kind that resembles a boozing employee—it can only once in a while under specified circumstances, but utterly undesirable.

The eleventh is mighty scarce; the twelfth the kind into whose mouth one mustn't look but always does anyway.

The fourteenth is a symbol of overworkness but isn't always created, by any means.

The fifteenth is a baseball pitcher's arm-malady, and the sixteenth belongs to a child, though all the people playing baseball and riding bicycles aren't young enough to attend district school.

Mr. W. C. Held of IBM West Marine whips, experts to have Mrs. J. N. Harvey of Russell as his guest next week.

Miss Harry Dunn of El Paso is the guest of Mrs. H. G. Coors.

Mr. B. A. Bittner leaves Tuesday for Portland, Oregon. After a visit there with his wife she will go to New York where she expects to remain until June.

Dr. G. W. Pinter who has been the guest of his wife, Mrs. A. H. Allen, in Colorado, Colorado, will be back to Dean's Clinic at all stores.
